Section of the second of the s

Placards Posted on the Walls of Kishineff Houses Tell of Coming Massacre and Threaten All Who Stay.

LETTERS RECEIVED HERE GIVE HORROR NEWS.

Russian Police Take No Step to Prevent Slaughter and New Yorkers Will Raise Protest Intended to Reach Czar.

Believing that their protest may aid n arousing the Powers to voice a nighter one which will cause Russia to prevent the threatened massacre of Jews in Kishineff, the Hebrew societies in New York are planning to hold a mass-meeting in Cooper Union. Although their protest failed once, people of the persecuted race in this city feel that they should leave nothing unin Bessarabia.

The meeting has been called for Wednesday night. All the Jewish So-sietles and the United Hebrew Trades will unite in planning some measure of relief for the Jews of Kishineff. Felix Adler, Edward M. Shepard and President Schurman, of Cornell, will speak. The meeting is designed to accomolish some concerted action on the part of great governments which will avert heil, of Columbia University, does not think that an appeal to the United States Government alone would avail anything, having is mind the contemptuous way in which Russia received the petition of B'nai B'rith from the hands of President koosevelt and Secretary of State Hay.

"I cannot imagine what reason the Russian Government can have for fomenting trouble in Kisniner just at a moment so critical as this is," said the professor.

"Have you anything to say for your-"

as consistent in receiving sentence for the killing of Capt Townsend as when he told the story of his accumulated weight with me. Your request is denied. You are the most reckless crim

"You are a gross enemy to society and

Gen. Reyes Does Not Expect

Favorable Answer from Secretary Hay, and Dr. Herran

Closing the Legation.

departure of Colombia's representative

The preparations going on for closing in the affirs of the legation would menting trouble in Kisnineri just at a moment so critical as this is," said the professor.

"Petition to Roosevelt.

"The bitterness in the relations believen Russia and Japan seems to show that an armed conflict between the two people can hardly be avoided. Russia will in such a case need not only the neutrality of the other great nations of the world, but in some measure their benevolent regard.

"The cry of horror that went up throughout the entire civilized world after the last massacre at Kisnineff is a plain indication of what the nations will think of them for a recurrence of their barbarities.

"I cannot think that an appeal to the United States Goverfment would advance in the least the Jewish cause. President Roosevelt and Secretary Hay went all possible length with the petition presented by the Brial B'rith."

A petition is offices in bringing the conditions in Kisnineff to the attention of of other nations.

Abraham Cahan, editor of the Jewish new your anything to say for your-self?" asked the Judge.

"I understand, Your Honor," replied the convicted man without a tremor in his volee, "tiput the law gives to persons sentenced to death an extension of time before the sentence is carried out. I should like, Your Honor," replied the convicted man without a tremor in his volee, "tiput the law gives to persons sentenced to death an extension of time before the sentence is carried out. I should like, Your Honor," replied the convicted man without a tremor in his volee, "tiput the law gives to persons sentenced to death an extension of time before the sentence is carried out. I should like, Your Honor," replied the convicted man without a tremor in his volee, "tiput the law gives to persons sentenced to death an extension of time before the sentence is carried out. I should like, Your Honor," replied the convicted man without a tremor in his volee, "tiput the law gives to persons sentenced to death an extension of time before the sentence is carried out. I should like, Your Honor," replied the convicted man of other nations,

Abraham Cahan, editor of the Jewish Forward, one of the largest Jewish papers in the city, said:
"I cannot understand how such criminal action can be taken by a great nation such as Russia is and still go unpunished. It does not seem that we are really living in an age of civilizaunished. It does not seem that we you are a living violation of the laws really living in an age of civilization and God. If it is true you killed

The World's exclusive despatches re-garding the Kishineff intended massareads. "We do not know what to do where to run. The trial had a disastrous effect upon the Christian mind. A neighbor of mine who is usually well isposed toward the Jews has changed front. 'You can plainly see,' he said to me the other day, 'that the Czar is against you.'

The Czar wants the Jews pillaged, in sulted and outraged. Else why do the sulted and outraged. Else why do the company to the control of the court-room with his keepers without looking to the right or left. Counsel brake, who has been fighting to the right or left. Counsel brake, who has been fighting to the right or left. Counsel brake, who has been fighting to the right or left. Counsel brake, who has been fighting to the right or left. Counsel brake, who has been fighting to the right or left. Counsel brake, who has been fighting to the main's case, then made a formal motion for a new trial, but said after ward that he thought no action would be taken and it is a subject to the right or left.

"The Czar wants the Jews pillaged, insulted and outraged. Else why do the organizers of the riot go unpunished? It is the same old story of twenty-two years ago. The Gentile populace infers from the way the trial is conducted that the Government looks upon anti-Jewish rioters as agents of the State. "God alone knows what is to come next."

mr. Cahen said that the reason the Zar countenances the riots against the lews is to put down the revolutionary point that is constantly growing in Russia.

KISHINEFF MOBS STONE THE JEWS.

LONDON. Dec. 28.-Advices received to-day from Kishineff declare that the preliminaries to the massacre of Jews, planned to take place on Jan. 7 (Russia's Christmas Day), were aiready un-der way on Dec. 23, when anti-Semitic mobs went through the streets smashing windows in the houses of the hatel Hebrews, tearing signs from their stores and offering violence to the was the Cotembian Legation here and the

The persecuted people were in a state for home of abject terror, fearful of leaving their about the formula the formula of abject terror, fearful of leaving their this clear that they do not entertain about and afraid to flee from the city, very much hope of a satisfactory rethinking that to do so would only invite sooner the attack of the Russlans, which they hope may yet be averted by the Government.

The authorities treated the outrages as spathetically as they did the awful Reyes for keyeral days has denied ulmgalf to callers.

Attacked on the Streets.

"When I wrote my gloomy foreboding on Saturday last" (Lee. 19), says the despatch, "revealing the plot to repeat the massacre of April has. I hoped and believed that no violence would be committed before Christmas Day, but the reveal of the massacre of April has. I hoped and believed that no violence would be committed before Christmas Day, but the reveal of the worst batters in Kishiner and by the sentences dealt out to those Dhristians who were hardeated in the Christmas who were hardeated in the April horrors, bards of Russans went through the streets to day smassing in the doors of stores and tearing down and the doors of stores and tearing down and its treets, some were knocked down and kicked and the lives of others threatened if they dared again to put themselves in the way of the maratuders.

"The police made no effort to suppress the mobs. Prince Urusow was asked why he did not order the outrages." Attacked on the Streets.

thy he did not order the outrages topped, and he answered:
Outrages? I have heard of no out-

MR. AND MRS. HENDRICK, THEIR CHILD, WHO IS ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN KIDNAPPED, AND MRS. LAURA BIGGAR. KIDNAPS CHILD CHILD FATALLY

GARTH'S DEATH CAUSED BY WORRY

(Continued from First Page.)

was on this man's advice that he came Mr. Garth and diagnosed his case as one Among Mr. Garth's many friends hape was well known. He was one of big financial Institution over which he morally blind. I should be inclined not to believe your stories and to think you as morally insane were it not for the indubitable evidence of experts that you are sane.

Mr. Cahan said that several delegations from the many Hebrew societies in the city had called at kis office to say to learn the latest news from Kishnen. He showed them the following ster from the scene of the riots which explains the true situation there and sorroborates the despatches published in The World:

morally blind. I should be inclined not to believe your stories and to think you be removed to kings county the learn the law of the proposed to kings county the learn the latest news from Kishnen. He showed them the following there you are to suffer the nenalty of the law during the week of Feb. 8."

Burness Just Bowed.

Burness smiled and bowed his according to the learn the latest news from the scene of the riots which each during the week of Feb. 8."

Burness smiled and bowed his according to the learn the latest news from the scene of the riots which each during the week of Feb. 8."

Burness smiled and bowed his according to the learn the latest news from the scene of the riots which each during the week of Feb. 8."

Burness smiled and bowed his according to the learn the latest news from the scene of the riots which cats Mirs. Louis Herzog, one of the daughters, out of her $1.000,000 in the event of her stands, out of her $1.000,000 in the event of her stands, out of her $1.000,000 in the event of her stands, out of her $1.000,000 in the event of her stands, out of her $1.000,000 in the event of her stands, out of her $1.000,000 in the event of her $1.000,000 in the morally blind. I should be inclined not A provision of the will which cuts Mrs. McGregor over the executors was won deed by just before Mr. Garth undertook the women Burness smiled and bowed his acknowledgments to the Court and the spectators. The smile then troze on | state and he again assumed his normal impassive pose. He walked out of the court-room with his keepers without looking to the right or left. ting cording to those acquainted with his with him affairs. Treasurer Stanley, of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, which is one of the executors of Mr. Markets

field to-day, "but the gentleman who ac- Itish boy of the sort that come here Contractors Give a Short Hartigan Greatly Disturbed.

Guarantee and Trust Company, which is one of the executors of Mr. McComb's will, said to-day:

Estate in Perfect Condition.

"The McComb estate is in perfect shape, and there was nothing about the decision of the courts to account for arr. Garth taking the step he did. I happen to know, too, that Mr. Garth's own personal investments were all right and sound as a dollar."

Adrian H. Larkin, of No. 54 Wall street, who was Mr. Garth's personal attorney, said to-day that he had no right to disclars Mr. Garth's private affairs with anybody and wouldn't, but he knew that Garta was a very sick man when ne went away, he said. He was greatly shocked at the news of Mr. Garth's suicide, and believed it was undoubtedly due to the conditions of his health.

Defends the Family Name.

Mrs. Louis Herzog when seen said: "An article printed in circ of the papers to the effect that Mr. Garth was literally driven to suicide hecause of my sister's frie dship for a riding master of the name of Hubert Hartigan is almost too lisguiling to notice. I want to say, however, that it is without the structed in horseback riding by Hartigan, and subsequently she employed him is a known, and his sister, a pretty lirish girl, as a maid for her children. Last summer both Hartigan and his sister, a pretty lirish girl, as a maid for her children. Last summer both Hartigan and his sister, a pretty lirish girl, as a maid for her children. Last summer both Hartigan and his sister, a pretty discharged them. They were dismissed while the Lartis were at Norwood. "It is more than likely that Mr. Garth was insane. His accompliance that he had no right to discharged them. They were dismissed while the Lartis were at Norwood. The main is his right mind. I hardly think that a sane man would have done in the past year."

Mrs. Court Mrs. Carth Wrs. Garth was insane. The same main would have done in the past year.

windows of Jews fourses, battering a doors of stores and tearing down in the second their view of the part of support of the United States of the West of the lives of the part of suppose he did not order the way of the Bondholders Claims.

To share Colombia's DEBT, and not order the houses of and the answered utrages utrages? I have heard of no outrages utrages? I have heard of mouth of the third of the third of the colombian to any the part of suppose the part

NEW RECREATION

Concert for Commissioner Hawkes and Other Officials has been living with her mother, Mrs. of the Dock Department.

Deputy Commissioner Wallace, Secre- bring an action for divorce. As a Rotary Bleecker and other officials of the Dock Department, went to the pier on sue for divorce, and she did not relish the Department steamer. They were the idea of freeing the doctor, anyhow. met by Smear & Triest, the contractors, who had a band of music in the stand drick had stolen her little boy, but she on the upper deck ready to give the Commissioner a short concert to show she arose to-day. Her mother sent the him that the acoustics of the promenade little fellow on an errand to the corner which Commissioner Hawkes replied. There was a closed cab opposite. A cab in that poor neighborhood is unsuled to be worth that the working on the follow the names of Commissioner Jackson and discrete the working on the follow the names of Commissioner Jackson and the sister use. the place is said to be worth 3,600. Hartigan has three 20, 1202, finished Dec. 20, 1903." Then a number of horses and curtich he and his sister use.

Lerzog, the artist and brothof Mr. Garth, said to-lay of

Chief Efigineer John A. Bensall and the contractors.

Of Mayor Seth Low, Commissioner
20, 1202, finished Dec. 20, 1903." Then follow the names of Commissioner
Hawkes, Deputy Commissioner Jackson
Wallace, Secretary Russell Bleecker, Chief Efigineer John A. Bensall and the contractors.

The new pier is the largest of the recreation piers.

To-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the new gymnasium attached to the Children's Hospital on Randall's Island will be opened by Commissioner Folks. The gymnasium completed cost $17,900 and will be opened for inspection from 2 until 5 o'clock.

She got to the street the cab couldn't be located.

Policeman Smith had seen the cab, but knew nothing of the kidnapping nor could any neighbor be found who had seen the boy abducted. Many had seen the boy abducted. Many had seen the cab, however, and all testify that it the cab, however, and all testify that it

Eight Hundred Children Receiv Presents at Matinee.

A Guaranteed Cure for Piles.

OF ACTRESS'S FOE

Six-Year-Old Son of Dr. Hendrick, Had Crawled from Its Bed by the Convicted in Connection with the Laura Biggar Case, Dis-Caught Fire. appears in Front of Home.

HIS MOTHER SAW HIM THRUST INTO A CAB.

Believes It Plot to Force Her'to blanket she had wrapped about her. Who Is Now on Stage with cries and the screams of her eight to aid in putting out the flames.

When Dr. Riggins came from the Miss Biggar.

he police of the Hamilton avenue sta- Long after every one else in the famband, Dr. Charles C. Hendrick, had her one thin blanket and at last crept the doctor hurried her to the hospital, kidnapped her six-year-old son George from the bed and into the next room. The child soon lapsed into unconfrom in front of her home, at No. 103 where a fire was still glowing brightly sciousness. Her life is despaired of President street. A warning was sent in the stove. A big armchair was near by the doctors. out to the police at all Brooklyn ferries and Manhattan terminals to look out for a cab containing a six-year-old

Hendrick swore that a son was born to Laura Biggar at his sanitarium in Bayonne. N. J., and the actress said that this was the child of Henry M. Bennett, a Pittsburg millionaire, whose estate she was trying to secure.

Samuel Stanton, a Hoboken Justice of the Peace, also figured in the case, it being alleged that he had forged a certificate of marriage between Bennett and Miss Biggar. All three were tried at Freehold, N. J. Miss Biggar was deatered innecent and Hendrick and Standard innecent and Hendrick the Peace, also figured in the case, it clared innocent and Hendrick and Stanton were declared guilty. They are out n bail pending an appeal of the case. Husband Is Suing Her for Divorce.

Soon after the trial Hendrick left his Biggar. They have played together in vaudeville houses and in production of to pay her $20 a week, and he is suing er for an absolute divorce. Since the breaking up of her home Mrs. Hendrick, with her three children,

Nallen, at the President street address The two women and the children occupy three scantily furnished rooms, and their ondition financially is not of the best. The new recreation pier at Market street. East River, was formally turned over to the city to-day by the contractors. Commissioner Hawkes, with Deputy Commissioner Welkers, Steep a way from her unless she consented to Last night she dreamed that Dr. Hen

There was a closed cab opposite. A

GIFTS BY BABES IN TOYLAND. was on the block for at least an hour before Mrs. Hendrick gave the alarm.

The Wife Fenred a Trap. "I am convinced," said Mrs. Hendrick to an Evening World reporter "that the Two thousand Christmas presents kidnappers intended to invade my home vere this afternoon given to 800 chil- and take my boy. At an early hour todren who attended the matinee of day a well-dressed young man came Babes in Toyland" at the Majestic here and said that my brother, James who was M. Garths personal attorned, who was M. Garths proposed the second of the control of the Laundry Wants-Female. MARKERS and assorters wanted. Laundry, 1838 Amsterdam av. bet. 141st and 142d. FEEDERS, folders and to tie up. Modern Steam Laundry, 108 E. 404 st. WOMAN to wash fiannels, starch family pieces. Steam Laundry 51 W. 51g st. 57ARCHERS wanted for shirts, collars and cuffs. Siancourt Laundry, 528 W. 48th st. BOBOM IRONER on Hagan machine. Ranover Laundry, 70 Wallebout et. Breoldyn. IRONER-First-class family ironer at cross. 802 West 120th st.

BURNED IN SLEEP

Stove for Warmth When Blan-

Falling asleep in the warm glow from the stove, little Mary Sarisi was almost and into the street, most of them carry-burned to death in the home of her and few with more than their night parents, at No. 14 Cherry street, to-day, clothing. The tenants of the entire house were Sue for Divorce from Man panic-stricken by the child's frenzied frightened brothers and sisters. She Hudson Street Hospital he found that was carried unconscious to the Hudson Street Hospital he found that both mother and father had been bad-Street Hospital, where she is at the ly burned about the arms and face in in Brooklyn, to-day that her hus- ily was asleep Mary shivered beneath and she ouddled down in it and w

Her father and mother did not her leave her room and thought all the children were fast asleep in their own rooms. They were awakened by piercing screams from the living room.

John Sarisi ran into the room, followed by his wife. The sparks had set fire to the blanket Mary had wrapped around her and it was all ablage. The room was light from the flame.

The mother ran for other blankets to smother the flames, and the other chil-dren, awakened by their sister's cries, ket in Which It Was Wrapped ran screaming into the halis. With the cries of "Fire!" they awoke every one in the house.

Thinking the tenement was on fire, men and women rushed from their rooms and fied down the narrow stairs

The Sarisi children made them un derstand the cause of the trouble, and the excitement drew the attention of and then ran into the house fighting for the life of their child. The girl herself was frightfully burned preliminary measures to ease ner pain out for a cas containing a six-year-old boy and two men, but the cab was not found. Dr. Hendrick is the man who figured so prominently in the conspiracy charge against Laura Biggar, the actress Dr. Hendrick swore that a son was born to SPECIAL FOR NEW YEAR'S.

COUNTER GOODS, LB. - -THE LARGEST LINE IN THE CITY.

SPECIAL FOR DEC. 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st: FIVE-POUND BOXES. ONE-POUND BOXES.

DLD-FASHIONED BARLEY SUGAR 10c "East Lynne." Mrs, Hendrick secured a court order compelling her husband BUTTER PEANUT BRITTLE...... 10c FINE MIXED CANDY, AN ENDLESS ASSOCIATION OF DELICIOUS CON-75c

SPECIAL MIXED CANDY—CONSISTING OF VANILLA CHOUDLAID REAM DROPPS CREAM PEPPERMINTS AND WINTERGREENS, APRICOT DATES, F R U I I J E L L I E S, BONBONS, 13c

HIGH-GRADE CHOCOLATES. A 25c IMPORTED FRENCH GLACE FRUITS. NEW CROP. JUST AR $1.50

An Immense Showing of MOTTO PAPERS, COSTUME MOTTOES, VERSES, FAVORS, &c., &c. During this sale we will continue our Special Offer to Sunday-Schools, Churches,

A 30-pound pail of Mixed Candy and 60 $2.25

he following rates:
Manhattan Island, 10c.
Brooklyn, Jersey City.
Joboken or the Bronx, 15c.

CAMMEYER

Our Patent Leather Shoes

have the snap and dash that young men like. In form and style, in material, wear, workmanship and finish, young men have discovered that our shoes are superior to all others and our prices inferior to all others.

Men's "Varsity," $5.00. Men's "Harbard," $3.00.

Complete Line of Men's Patent Leather Pumps.

Catalogue Mailed Free on Application. Mail Orders Promptly Filled.

ALFRED J. CAMMEYER, 6th Ave. & 20th St.

Fulton St., Elm Place and Hoyt St., Brooklyn

THIS COUPON IS GOOD FOR $2 Worth of Blue Stamps.

Cut this coupon out and present it at any store giving BLUE Stamps when making a purchase to the amount of $1.00 or more and you will receive, in addition to the stamps given with your purchase, $2.00 worth of Blue Stamps ABSOLUTELY FREE. This coupon must be presented during week of December 28 and January 2. STAMP

BENEDICT & MACFARLANE CO., Prop., INCORPORATED, $1,000,000 CAPITAL. (E. W.)

A. I. NAMM

A. I. NAMM

MERCHANTS: Please Accept This Coupon